WELCOME & ANNOUNCEMENTS		Rev. Simoneaux
PRELUDE	Prelude in G Minor	Johann Krebs
CALL TO WORSHIP
Leader:	Let us not seek our own welfare and neglect the care of another,
People:	Lest we fade like the grass and wither like the weed;
Leader:	For the sun of God Shines upon the cruel, as upon the kind-
People:	If our roots do not run down into good soil, the sun shall cause our flower to wilt; its rays shall make our leaves to shrivel.
Leader:	Let us not pursue our own desires by inflicting pain on another,
People:	Lest we drown like the seed and wash away like the stalk;
Leader:	For the rain of God descends upon the cruel, as upon the kind-
People:	If our roots do not reach deep into firm ground, the rain shall choke our fragile shoot; its torments shall wrest us from the earth.
Leader:	No, let us commit our life to the Lord,
People:	That all might flourish beneath the sun and be nourished by the rain.
All:	Let the hand of the Lord increase the fruits of our labor, that the harvest might yield plenty-not for one but for all.

NEW SUNDAY SCHOOL OPPORTUNITY At the request of some of our members, we would like to provide a new Sunday school class beginning Sunday, January 12. This class will meet at either 8:30am or 11:00am to accommodate those who worship at The Vine. (We will not meet when we have combined worship services.) Initially, the new Sunday School class will be taught by Pastor Meg Wilkes. We will select a curriculum, and a name based on the interests of our participants.
